Silent Retreat Approaching

It's not too late to register for the Sionito Silent Retreat (March 30 to April 1). Our Retreat Spiritual Director, Marlene Krueger, has assembled an all-star faculty and program designed to help you go deeper in your relationship with God. Men, it's not just for women! Young people, it's not just for the middle-aged! Click on this link to access the retreat brochure, schedule and registration form: <http://sionito.org/forms/CampSionitoSilentRetreat2012.pdf>

Work Party & Board Meeting Bring Major Changes

Air conditioning in the Dining Hall! That's right, with a transfer from capital development reserves and a generous gift from a Sionito family, the Sionito Board gave the "green light" to installation of air conditioning in time for 2012 summer camps. Preparatory work is already in progress. Over the weekend, approximately 40 volunteers worked on projects including pouring the new floor, sidewalk and kiln slab for the Craft Building, as well as pouring concrete porches for the Children's Tabernacle entrances and a slab for the new Block Cabin cleaning supply closet.

Work continued with the Main Bathhouse and Block Cabin remodel projects, 8 truckloads of gravel were spread under the new Playground and the portable shelter by the new Playground received a new coat of paint. There was electrical work at the Dining Hall for new refrigerators, microwave, icemaker and air conditioning and a trailer with 2100 sq feet of donated wood for Block Cabin ceilings was unloaded.

A big thank you to all for their hard work!

Tom Grubbs has completed judging the entries in the 2011 photo contest and we extend our congratulations to the following winners: Wayne Hay for Friends, Kathleen Johnson for Reflections, Joyce Conrad for Room for One More and Cassie Stricker for Sunset.
